"LAST DITCHERS" TO FIGHT ACTION

Suffragists contended that the supreme court's decision in the Ohio referendum case nullifies this section of the Tennessee constitution.

Judge Debow, charged the grand jury in the Davidson county criminal court today on the subject of efforts to improperly influence or corrupt the lawmaking power of the state and laid special emphasis on the fight for the ratification of the federal suffrage amendment by the Tennessee legislature.

Judge Debow's charge followed publication by the Nashville Tennessean and the Nashville Banner of two affidavits in which allegations were made that undue influence had been brought to bear on one member of the house who first voted to table the ratification resolution and later voted for the adoption of the resolution. A single vote decided the issue in favor of suffrage.

IS GREAT VICTORY HARDING DECLARES

Suffrage for Women the Most Important Thing Happening In The Campaign

[By Associated Press.]

Marion, Ohio, Aug. 19.—Senator Harding declared today that the grant of suffrage to American women would be especially welcome to the republicans in the coming campaign because "a great moral and social reform, recently achieved, is menaced by the cover purpose of our opponents to attack it."

He predicted that voting women would stand with the republican party through a realization that it had in achieving social betterment while the democratic party "had notoriously refused" to enforce reform policies.

"Women Have Won." "American women," said Senator Harding in commenting on completion of ratification of the suffrage amendment, "have won the suffrage fight, which as an organized continuing movement has covered three quarters of a century."

He said that the victory is dramatic because it comes as the result of a great final drive that now has insured to all American women a full participation in the most crucial national election in many years.

Most Important Phase. Yet important as are the issues in this political contest, we may well doubt if history will recognize any other phase of it as equal in importance to the fact that in this year the women of America for the first time took their full part in determining the national destinies, and maintaining our nationality. I look upon the enfranchisement of women as an accomplishment to be rated along with our achievement of independence, our preservation of the union, our emancipation of the slaves and our contribution in the world war to the rescue of civilization itself.

As to immediate political effects, we republicans may and do feel secure.

Spoke to Veterans. To a group of Civil war veterans, Senator Harding reiterated today his belief that the nation went into the great war primarily to defend American rights and promised that should he become president there would be no surrender of national integrity.

The speech was the first of two he was to deliver today. Later in the afternoon he planned to discuss party government to a delegation of members and former members of the Ohio legislature.

"There have been varying opinions expressed," Senator Harding told the veterans, "as to why your grandsons went into the great war."

Rights Threatened. "The simple truth is, and it doesn't disfigure the opinion of any one that we went in because American rights were threatened. That doesn't mean that when it is over we should give up what your sacrifice gave to us and I promise you that if I am elected president there will never be a surrender of that which you handed down to this generation."

The nominee's declaration was answered by "amens" and cheers by the old soldiers who had come from Kenton, Ohio, to make an informal call. About fifty were in the party.

For the third time, the Jefferson playgrounds ball team defeated the Shamrocks when they won last night 15 to 14. The game was six innings played at Webster grounds. The last victory of the Jeffersons was made Friday at 7 to 6.

The Jefferson team did not enter the ring until late in the season, but it has taken every game so far. ## COX WANTS LEAGUE "WHEN HE GETS IN"

Would Put It in Force
Soon After He is Inaugurated

[By Associated Press.]
South Bend, Ind., Aug. 18.—National and international financial and economic readjustment as well as the day from Columbus via Chicago and will speak tonight at the Indiana Democratic Editors banquet.

Will Enter League.
"With the least possible delay after March 4, 1921, our pledge is to enter the league, making such additions as are reassuring and helpful," he continued. "This will legally end the war; it will help to re-establish credits.
"The opposition offers, at the very best, a very long delay. What project it has as a substitute for the league of nations no one knows, or high cost of living, are bound up in the success of the league of nations,

Gov. Cox, democratic presidential nominee declared here today in addressing a large public gathering.
"Our safety, our economic readjustment and our prosperity," all involved in America's making the league a world force, Gov. Cox asserted, charging the republican "penalty" which is the responsibility for delay in economic progress and belated reduction of living costs. The democratic candidate came here to at least one has ever attempted to describe it or to name it. "The question of the league of nations therefore becomes increasingly the issue in this campaign for the very reason that it involves our safety, our economic readjustment and our prosperity. Every day between now and November will witness the gradual retreat of the forces of reaction. The tide of moral thought is flowing against them."

"Reaction," says Cox, reiterating his charge of "reaction" against the republican leaders, Gov. Cox added:
"If they should follow their own steps backward they would find that every condition against which they inveigh is of their own creation.
"If the league of nations had been ratified months ago excitement would have been stabilized. Europe could have started its work of rehabilitation."

FIVE DROWNINGS IN ONE DAY IS RECORD

Mendota Takes Toll of Dead
While the Chippewa River
Has Three Victims

Madison, Aug. 18.—John Borghman, 30 years old, and G. W. Menard, 23 years old, of Madison, were drowned in Lake Monona near Merriam Springs Wednesday afternoon. Neither of the men could swim. They went out in a row boat and the craft capsized. Borghman's wife was in swimming with her sister, Miss Irene Rasmussen. The women saw the men sink beneath the surface. The life preserver pullover was rushed to the lake but was useless. The bodies were not recovered until after hours of dragging with grappling hooks by Capt. Neptune Isbell, life saver of the University of Wisconsin.

Three in Chippewa River.
Ladysmith, Wis., Aug. 18.—Three young men, cousins, were drowned in the Chippewa river, a few miles north of Bruce, relatives were rescued from the bank and after each had gone to the rescue of a 12 year old boy, who later was saved by his father.

The dead are: Mark Holdread, 16 years old; Quinn O. Gall, 23 years old, and Orin A. Bell, 19 years old. The boy had slipped from a floating log, and sunk in deep water. Gall, not a good swimmer, was the first to attempt rescue. Holdread was second.

Neither of these reached the boy, but Bell started with him for shore. Exhausted by the current, Bell cried for help. The boy's father waded out from shore, and grasped the son, while Bell went under the surface, and was swept down stream.

The Diary of an Engaged Girl

LINDSEY SAVES TWO YOUNG HEARTS FROM SUFFERING

Spend the morning in close confinement with Mr. Boyer, and then he asked me to lunch with him, as a sort of farewell affair, which I did. He is nicer than words can describe, and so many of the world's which is what I like about a man. We had a jolly feed, and he talked to me about my work, and the future I felt quite like some of the other great journalists have felt like when first they made good. He instructed me as to the best way to get my ideas over here to him in Europe, and we finally arranged definitely for next year. I am now a chartered cartoonist for "The Evening Leader" for the next twelve months at least, and if he had had his way it would have been for longer. This I thought, however, for a girl like myself, can never tell where she will be, exactly, from one year to another. Besides, I have been bound down to definitely to anyone, or anything, I do feel happy at the way things are shaping themselves for me—it's wonderful.

From my office (sounds so important) I called up Bricky and afternoon. Instructed him to meet me at Dorsey's studio, and to arrive early and stay late, as my sweet-sad duty to take leave of my pals on the "leader," which I did. They were all so cordial, and I felt quite sorry to leave me leave, even for so short a time. It made me feel most important.

Got over to Dorsey's at about three and found her busy—doing nothing. She looked rather pale and was not all her old self, which made me suspicious at once. One day I know the earmarks of love after a while.

That wretched girl is the only one of all of us who has not yet not to be had—look at any price. She is bound to stand alone and not be led to rise altar, what though both she and he are in the same boat, for she is going to be a second Aunt Cecilia. Dorsey is that kind of a girl and I don't suppose anything will ever change her, if I can't.

She is so self-sufficient she fairly makes me sick—with envy. Talked to me and even through all the torments of the damned, and even broke into childish laughter on one or two occasions. It was so weird, to me, especially as she still had all the marks of recent tears around her pretty eyes. Girls are such idiots after all!

She told me that she envies me my trip tremendously, that such a trip would be the very thing for her at this particular moment. Just as she was talking the telephone rang, and she went over to answer it. I saw her face go quite pale when she heard the voice at the other end, but she never turned a hair. Simply said in a quiet voice that Miss Dorothy Wilson was not at home, nor would be for several weeks, etc. I was unsatisfied in the extreme, until I found that foolish girl rushed up to me, after hanging up the receiver, and said in a shaky voice, "Hold on to me, Lindsey, dear, hold on to me now, tight as you can, for if you don't I'll take up that receiver and he won't leave for India." I knew that what it was all about.

Knowing my Dorsey and her obstinacy I decided there and then to take things into my own hands, and take a few moments I discovered his name and profession (engineering), also that he is about to leave for foreign shores, and that I then faked a terrific headache and asked Dorsey for some powders, which she did not have, but offered to run out and fetch. I begged her to do so, and as soon as she was late I danced over to the receiver, took it down, and in a clear voice asked for Mr. Stuntum's. When I heard a masculine voice on the other end I asked sweetly if that was Mr. Arthur Stuntum, and followed same by a quick sketch of Dorsey, her red eyes, and her deep dejection. I ended up with an earnest plea for Mr. Stuntum to rush over here and knock the obstinate girl on the head, if necessary, for she was prepared to suffer rather than confess her love, and allow herself to be married! There was tremendous relief in Mr. Stuntum's voice, and at the end he actually laughed as he assured me that he had felt all along that that was just what Dorsey needed. I told him what a thrilling situation for Dorsey, or any other girl. I did envy her as I hung up the receiver, and only just in time, for she appeared the second afterwards, bearing my medicine in her hand.

Twenty minutes afterwards Bricky arrived and had a reason. And shortly after that, just as I, hated and spurred for other regions, was standing explaining to Bricky that the must come along to my home, there was another knock at the door, and in walked a tall, very bronzed and determined looking young giant, and staring eyes was all that was needed to tell us who he was—and how Dorsey will think me some day!

Negligees for Fall and Winter Crowd Out Lacey Summer Things

By ELOISE.

The new negligees for the fall and winter are crowding the lovely summer ones out of the running. Satins, velvets, corduroys and padded silks are making their initial appearance now, and chiffons, georgettes and crepe de chine are finding their way to the bargain counters for a last disposal sale. Here are three graceful negligees. The one at the left is the latest in the line, and is now selling at reductions, while the other two are the new winter models.

The robe at the right is a startling creation made of gold brocade cloth trimmed with black panne velvet. It is made with the long Japanese sleeves deeply bordered in the black which reaches the knees or above. The gold cloth is bordered in a pretty flower design which is further oriental.

In the center is a very rich gown of pale blue panne velvet trimmed with silver cloth. It is made on much the same style as the first robe except that here the panne velvet forms the trimming and border. Both of these robes mean comfort for the cold mornings and evenings of winter and both are luxurious enough to suit the most extravagant whim of midcity.

The negligee at the left is a summer negligee of fresh colored crepe de chine with a lace and georgette jacket. It is ribbon trimmed and really makes a charming robe for leisure hours, although it is far too cool for the coming season. The wise woman, however, will eagerly pick up such a negligee if she sees it on the bargain table.

Heart and Home Problems

Letters May be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette

"L. C. C." Address mail to me in care of the paper.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl twenty years of age and have not gone with any boys. Yet I met a young man and he wants to correspond. Do you think it would be all right? He seems to think a great deal of me and I like him.

Yes, it would be all right to correspond.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of eighteen, have light hair, blue eyes and a fair complexion. I have very short, thick, curly hair and wear it in curls from six to twelve. Do you think I am old for that style?

I have several admirers, but only one that I know I care for. Do you think I should just care for him or have a good time with all young people? I have known this young man for one or two years and correspond with him constantly. He seems to really care for me at times, and then again he seems indifferent. That makes me feel like the more he loves me the more he is guessing. Do you think he loves me?

A GIRL'S LOVE.

Yes, you are too young to wear your hair as you say. If you pinned the curls on top of your head it would look all right. I imagine from what you say that you are almost bobbed in length. Older women sometimes look well with their hair bobbed, but a girl who is just past childhood looks awkward with her hair combed as she combed it in childhood.

Have a good time with different young men. Probably the young man you care for is too young to be in love and realizes the fact.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl

HOUSES FOR SALE

HOUSES
HOMES

ON RINGOLD STREET, BETWEEN RUGER AVE. AND S. SECOND ST. FIVE BLOCKS EAST OF THE COURT HOUSE PARK.

WE ARE ABOUT TO COMPLETE FIVE OF THE BEST HOMES IN THE CITY OF JAMESVILLE. YOU MIGHT ASK WHY THEY ARE OF THE BEST.

FIRST—THEY ARE IN THE MOST DESIRABLE RESIDENTIAL DISTRICT IN THE THIRD WARD.

SECOND—ALL MATERIAL USED IS THE VERY BEST MONEY CAN BUY.

THIRD—ARCHITECTURE AND CONVENIENCE.

FOURTH—THEY ARE ALL INSULATED WITH FLAXLINUM.

JUST A FEW WORDS ON FLAXLINUM BEFORE WE GO ANY FURTHER. A HOME SHOULD BE A PLACE OF COMFORT; A SPOT WHERE THE ELEMENTS CANNOT PENETRATE; WHERE WARMTH AND CHEER IN WINTER, COMFORT AND FRESHNESS IN SUMMER. THESE ARE A FEW OF THE THINGS FLAXLINUM WILL DO.

FLAXLINUM ISN'T ANY NEW TECHNICAL OR MIRACULOUS MATERIAL. IT'S JUST A GOOD HONEST PRODUCT MADE TO KEEP YOUR HOME WARM AND COSY THROUGH THE COLD WINTER MONTHS AND COOL DURING THE HOT ONES, AND IT CERTAINLY DOES THE WORK.

IT'S SIMPLY A MATTER OF GETTING AS MANY TINY "DEAD AIR" SPACES AS POSSIBLE INTO YOUR WALLS. "DEAD AIR" DOESN'T CONDUCT HEAT AND THEREFORE THE MORE "DEAD AIR" YOUR WALL CONTAINS THE LESS MONEY YOU WILL HAVE TO THROW INTO YOUR FURNACE AND THE MORE COMFORT YOU WILL GET OUT OF YOUR HOME.

NOW JUST FROM THE MONEY STANDPOINT, IF YOU ARE CONTEMPLATING ON BUYING A HOME IT WILL PAY YOU WELL TO AT LEAST INSPECT THESE HOUSES FOR THIS FLAXLINUM INSULATION. AT LEAST 30% TO 40% ON YOUR FUEL BILL THAT WOULD MEAN FROM $50 TO $80 A YEAR AS LONG AS YOU LIVE IN THESE HOUSES.

THESE HOUSES ARE BUILT ON LOTS 52 FOOT BY 156 FOOT WITH PLENTY OF ROOM FOR A LARGE GARAGE AND GARDEN. HEAVY FLOOR JOISTS ARE USED IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF THESE DWELLINGS AS YOU WILL SEE BY INSPECTION.

WE EXPECT TO HAVE THESE FIVE HOUSES READY FOR OCCUPANCY WITHIN 30 DAYS AS THEY ARE BEING PLASTERED NOW.

BETTER CALL AND SEE WHAT YOU CAN GET FOR A REASONABLE AMOUNT OF MONEY.

Exciting Finishes Mark Goose Island Swimming Tournament Yesterday

In exciting races marked by close finishes, the annual swimming meet of the Janesville playgrounds association was held at Goose island Wednesday afternoon. Thirty boys and girls were entered.

Alfred Meyer, Howard Wilcox and Frances Daley were the stars. Each won two races. Miss Daley, a 13-year-old, is the girl who won the girls' swimming race at the Community picnic, several weeks ago.

The banks of the river were lined with interesting spectators.

TENNIS SEMI-FINALS AT BOSTON TODAY

Boston, Aug. 19.—The semi-final round for the national doubles tennis championship was held up today while postponed third round matches were being played at the Longwood cricket club. It was considered doubtful if either of the semi-final matches would be reached today.

The matches to determine which teams will enter the semi-finals with William T. Tilden and Charles Garland were those in which R. Norris Williams, second, and Richard Harte met Willis Davis and Roland Robertson; W. T. Huxley and R. E. Burdick faced W. P. Johnson and S. W. Peterson, and W. M. Johnston and C. J. Griffin played L. E. Mahan and A. Mencken.

GOOD NEWS DUE FOR LOCAL FANS

Good news seems about to break for the Janesville fans. While nothing definite has come to a head, but the details appear to be working around to give the Samson Tractors some new material for the Beloit series of Saturday and Sunday.

It may be probable that Carl Cashion, Southpaw pitcher for the Clyde Iron Works, Duluth, will join the Samson staff tomorrow. In addition, two left-handed pitchers, Ed Miller and Milan, an outfielder, both of the same semi-pro circuit as Cashion are expected to drop into town tomorrow.

Cashion is a six-footer and a smashing hitter. He has played with Washington of the American League and Minneapolis of the association.

Samson officials declare that these are the men whom George Ferring has been after, but also state that they will not know positively until tomorrow whether the men will be on hand. If they are, there is no doubt that the stock of the Samson will take a considerable boost.

Monroe, Aug. 19.—Summer Song, Dean Jr., up, broke the state record for green trotters Wednesday when he covered the mile course in the 2:24 trot, $3,000 purse in 2:11 1-4. This is the seventh straight victory for Summer Song in the last five weeks, one of which was made at Janesville in the first heat.

Misfortune took Young Dean in the second heat when Summer Song broke. It was the first time the horse turned this trick.

CRIPPLED CREW TO FACE BELLOIT CLUB THIS WEEK-END

That Samson is going to have a tough time of it with the Beloit club on Saturday and Sunday, but will nevertheless, put up a tough battle for the laurels is more truth than poetry. Here's the situation as outlined by Bill Lathrop, Samson star twirler, today.

First of all Ray Shook is on the blink. The finger that he broke in the second game with the Beloit crew continues to remain numb and lifeless. As a result, Ray finds it difficult to peg an accurate throw down to second, whereas prior to the injury he was one of the prettiest steal-kickers in the semi-pro Chicago wheel. Besides, Shook is just coming out of a Charlie horse.

Perhaps, we should have mentioned Ferring first. However, the fact that George has a game left leg and can go into the game only with danger of being forced out by further injury, is serious to the moral of the club. Any observer can tell that just as soon as Manager George is on the field playing the game with the men, the infield tightens up at once and plays an entirely different and more safe brand of ball than when he is out.

Then there is Breckenridge. The redoubtable center fielder still feels the effects of the injuries he sustained to the lower limb when playing at Portage. Thus he is slowed up in the field and also on running the bags.

A baseball diamond has been used for many things. Now comes word that Ebbetts field, Brooklyn, may be the scene of the Dempsey-Brennan bout.

SOX LOSE WHILE CUBS ARE IDLE

AMERICAN LEAGUE.
Chicago lost the first game of the series to Philadelphia by a 1 to 0 shutout. The White Sox got five scattered hits off Rummel. Dugan's long double drove home the only run of the game.

In 11 innings, the Red Sox defeated the Tigers, 4 to 3. McNally scored from second in the final stanza on Myers' infield single.

With Sisler and Jacobson the batting heroes, St. Louis defeated Washington, 13 to 2. Shaw and Acosta were reached for 17 hits. Shocker held the Senators safe at all stages.

New York defeated Cleveland in the ninth inning on Pipp's home run, scoring Kewster. The score was 4 to 3. For seven innings the game was a pitching duel between Bagby and Quinn, the latter retiring in the seventh to permit Meusel to bat for him. The crowd, with Chapman gone from the game forever, showed unusual lack of enthusiasm.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.
No games scheduled.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, second place holders in the National, played an exhibition game with the Dayton (O.) Triangles and won, 1 to 0.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.
Wild throws, poor pitching and a few other such things gave the Milwaukee team a victory Wednesday over Toledo, 11 to 2. It was the seventh straight victory for the Brewers.

Friede Wins Canoe
Title of Thousand Isles
Clayton, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Leo Friede of New York City, international canoe sailing champion again won the national trophy at the annual regatta of the American Canoe association at the Thousand Islands.

Hundreds of Dollars Saved By Rock County Farmers After Adopting The Fordson Plan

Taylor Bros. who purchased a Fordson Tractor last fall have worked their 320 acre farm with a Fordson, have expressed themselves as saving hundreds of dollars since using the Fordson by

- Saving time.
- Saving in man power.
- Producing a greater yield.
- Getting their work done right and at the right time in less time.

Taylor Bros. are now threshing their barley which is yielding 55 bushels per acre, showing what a perfect seed bed has done. The cost of threshing this grain is less than one-tenth of what it cost previous years with other threshing outfits.

Taylor Bros. are so enthusiastic over the Fordson way that they cordially invite the Farmers of Rock County to come and see that "Farming's Fun with a Fordson".

The Taylor Farm is located three and one-half miles north on the Milton Avenue road. It is to your interest to call and satisfy yourself.

Now is the time to adopt the Fordson Plan.
